

Our Commitment to Reconciliation

Weaving Stories of Boodja values Australia's First Nations culture, history, language and people. We are committed to building and maintaining respectful relations with all First Nations people.

Weaving Stories of Boodja is committed to:

1. A Welcome to Country to open their projects and at the project finale.
2. An Acknowledgement of Country in the beginning of every workshop.
3. Ensuring an acknowledgement is included on promotional material, our website and social media pages.
4. Engage and check in with a cultural consultant to provide advice on any cultural content.
5. Always seek permission before we share cultural content.
